MUSICAL CLUBS APPEAR IN UTE NEXT SATURDAY

Glee and Instrumental Clubs Will Present Annual Concert in Hotel Utica

MANY NEW FEATURES

Clubs Give First Performance in New York Mills

The tickets are on sale for the annual Utica concert of the Glee and Instrumental Clubs. The program will begin at 8:15 next Saturday evening, in the ballroom of Hotel Utica. It has been decided to make this concert informal. From ten to one there will be dancing, the music furnished by the Hamilton Serenaders, augmented by some members of the Utica Black and White Orchestra. Through the courtesy of the Y. M. C. A., the movies scheduled for Saturday night have been cancelled. To encourage further the attendance of students, a special price for admission has been offered. While the tickets will sell for $1.50 to all outsiders, they will be available to undergraduates for one dollar, until Saturday noon. Admission at the door will be $1.50. Tickets are obtainable from Merwin, Jones, Merritt, Archibald and Bennett.

The program in Utica will be composed equally of Glee Club, Instrumental Club, and novelty numbers. Keith Preston, leader of the Instrumental Clubs, was at Amherst last week-end, playing with the Barbary Coast Orchestra from Dartmouth, and he has brought back with him two of their latest numbers, which he will present at the concert. The novelty numbers are probably the most elaborate ever put on by the Clubs. One of them comprises a piano duet of popular numbers by Fradenburgh and Green, with a cornet solo by Preston. Another number, the German Band, is a clever bit of musical humor done by Preston, Brockway, Sherman, Ferris, and Whitbeck. The mute comedy of this act is worthy of the Marx brothers. A vocal duet, accompanied by Stone and Robson with banjos and Green at the piano, is another novelty of this year's origin.

The program planned for the Uticaa concert is:

Fair Hamilton, Lewis, '90; Student Land, arranged by Gousha and Colling—Glee Club.

Lady of the Nile, Kahn and John; Because of You, Hirsch—Instrumental Club.

Classical Piano Solos, selected—Green.

My Love Dwelt in a Northern Land, Elgar; Chorus of the Bacchantes, Gounod—Glee Club.

Selections by the Quartet.

By the Waters of Minnetonka, Lieurance; The Prisoner's Song, Massey; Oriental Love Dream, Kerr—Instrumental Club.

Popular Numbers, selected—Green, Fradenburgh, solo by Preston.

Drinking Song, from "The Student Prince"; Popular Encores—Glee Club.

The German Band, novelty—Preston, Brockway, Ferris, Sherman, Whitbeck.

The Co-ed, Conrad and Bernie; One Stolen Kiss, Conley—Instrumental Club.

Carissima, Stryker, '72.

CHARLATAN'S NEXT PLAY "CAT AND THE CHERUB',

The Charlatan play, "The Cat and the Cherub", tryouts for which are to take place soon, was written by Chester B. Fernald and was produced in London in 1897. Holbrook Blinn who, it will be remembered, played the leading role last year in "The Dove" in New York, distinguished himself in the principal part of this play when it was produced in London.

The play is a stirring Chinese melodrama and the characters people of the underworld of San Francisco engaged in the intricacies of a tong war. It is a vivid and thrilling reproduction of the horror and terror of these secret and bloody feuds between rival societies of Oriental immigrants. The leading roles afford ample opportunity for the Charlatans to distinguish themselves, and the stage settings, easily adapted to a small stage, are not too elaborate.

QUARTER HOUR TRIP TO UTICA PLANNED

Gasoline Propelled Car Will Make Trip in Record Time

A new means of communication between Utica and Clinton will be available within the next few weeks when a gasoline-propelled car will be installed on the local branch of the New York, Ontario and Western Railway. The car has already been purchased by the company and will, according to plans, run from Utica to Walton, a town about 35 miles south of Norwich. The line will be in operation about Dec. 15, it is thought.

A large number of gasoline cars are in use on various railroads thruout the country, but, as far as is known, this will be the first in this section. The car will attain an average speed of 40 miles per hour, and will make the trip from Utica to Clinton in 15 minutes. This time, of course, is considerably less than that of the trolley.

For the present the car will run but twice daily, arriving from Utica at 11:05 a. m., and leaving for Utica at 5:05 p. m. Railway officials have stated, however, that, if a sufficient patronage is secured, the car will be run more often, and it is possible that a half-hour schedule will be arranged. Stops will probably be made near the Yahnundasis Club, at Columbia street and at the Union Station.

The car will have a smoking compartment and the very newest equipment and conveniences. There will be accommodations for 80 persons. It will be possible to carry light baggage and express.

Students at Hamilton will, of course, benefit greatly by the new service as it will be possible to get from Clinton to Utica in about half the usual time.

For some time it was thought that a new bus line would be run from Clinton to Utica. There is now a bus line from Waterville to Clinton but passengers are transferred to the trolley here. It was proposed to have the Waterville bus stop at the foot of College Hill, and, from there, to proceed to Kirkland and into Utica by Genesee street. It was found, however, that the trolley lines own a transportation franchise on that street and it would be impossible to run a bus over this route.

CLUBS HOLD MEETINGS

There was a meeting of the History Club last Wednesday evening at the Sigma Phi Place. Queen Elizabeth was the famous woman discussed at this meeting. Elmer Meloche read a paper on the childhood of Queen Elizabeth. Dick Williamson read a paper on Queen Elizabeth as a ruler. Pucillo presided at the meeting, after which refreshments were served.

The Latin Club met last Monday evening at Emerson Hall. Dr. Chase read a long paper on the Scipionic circle. Douglas Chretien also read a paper. After the meeting refreshments were served.

The Biology Club will meet this Wednesday evening at Dr. Morrill's.

Piano Recital Next Monday Night Starts Series of Whiting Concerts

Name of Pianist Not Announced—Mr. Whiting to Lecture Briefly—Admission Free to College Body—Public to Be Charged for Tickets—Only Yale, Harvard, Princeton, and Hamilton on Whiting Itinerary.

The first of the Arthur Whiting Concerts will be presented in the College Chapel next Monday evening at 8:15 p. m. under the personal direction of the New York conductor. The concert will be in the nature of a piano recital although the artist who will accompany Mr. Whiting has not yet been announced.

In accordance with the wish of Mr. Whiting, a part of the first floor of the Chapel will be reserved for undergraduates until 8:10 o'clock. Admission will be free to all undergraduates and to members of the faculty. Any seats not used by the students and faculty will be placed at the disposal of the general public for the price of $1 a ticket.

Tickets for members of the college will be distributed from the President's Office only. Undergraduates are asked to call for their tickets not later than Saturday noon in order that the exact number of seats to be reserved will be known in advance. A limited number of tickets will be placed on sale in the Bursar's Office and at Earl B. Worden's Music Store in Utica. Any tickets not taken by undergraduates will be placed on sale next Monday morning.

Monday's recital will be the only concert at Hamilton this term. The remaining concerts are as follows: Feb. 8: Strings and Piano; March 1: Harpsichord, Flute, and Tenor; March 15; String Quartet and Piano; April 12: Vocal Recital.

The object of this series of concerts at Hamilton, which is made possible through the generous contribution of the Carnegie Corporation, is to serve as an introduction to the appreciation and enjoyment of classical and modern music. For a number of years Mr. Whiting has given similar concerts at Harvard, Yale, and Princeton with great success.

At each concert Mr. Whiting will speak briefly on the composers and their work and will explain the compositions on the program. Only artists of the highest ability accompany Mr. Whiting in this concerts. Among those recently taking part in concerts at the other colleges and universities are Mr. George Barrere, Miss Edith Bennett, Miss Loraine Wyman, Mr. Percy Such, Mr. John Barclay, Mr. Charles Kullman, and Mr. Sandor Harmati.

It is hoped by those sponsoring the concerts that an interest in music will be aroused, particularly among those to whom classical music has been heretofore a closed book. It is the contention of authorities on the subject that most young people with enough intelligence to enter college can learn to enjoy good music in the same way in which musicians themselves enjoy it.

FIRST-YEAR MEN ARE WARNED BY FACULTY

Mid-Term Postings Reveal Nearly Third of Class Down in Math

The posting, last Tuesday, of warnings to 95 freshmen and 37 sophomores, who were below passing grade in one or more of their studies, was the cause of great consternation among the ones thus marked.

A cross-examination of these warnings disclosed many interesting things. One of the most prominent and alarming was the fact that 95 out of 166 freshmen, over half the class, were warned, while about one third of the sophomore class was warned.

Over half of the freshmen who were posted failed in mathematics. French claimed the next highest number, this being the failing of 31. It was to be expected that many would find their Waterloo in math, but it is difficult to see why French should claim so many. Since 24 out of the 31 who failed French, flunked French 3, it is conceivable that French 3 is found to be too much of a jump from preparatory or high school French.

Latin, the terror of students for ages, got in its work, claiming 22, while Greek was the failing of 14. The other deficiencies were scattered over a variety of subjects.

The sophomores had no such common enemies as math and French.

Chemistry Led the List

It is difficult to lay the blame for these failings to any specific reasons. The old stand that too much athletics causes the failure of most students hardly seems probable in this case, for out of the 95 freshmen who were posted, only 27 were out for a fall sport. Out of the 37 sophomores who were posted, only 5 were out for a fall sport.

Over half of those warned will probably manage to pull up their grades by the end of the semester, but it is extremely doubtful about the other 40 or so.

PRETTYMAN DRIVING SQUAD FOR OPENER

Defensive Positions Causing Most Trouble to Hamilton Mentor

Despite the lack of ice, Coach Prettyman has been sending the hockey squad through regular workouts during the last two weeks in order to get his men in the best possible shape for the opening contest with Middlebury, which is now less than two weeks off. During the last week the Hamilton mentor has devoted most of the time to instruction in the fundamentals and has started the squad on puck shooting in the practice net in the library.

Although five of last year's letter men were lost through graduation, Coach Prettyman still has a strong nucleus of regulars in addition to a dozen candidates from the freshman squad, around which to build a team.

Coach Prettyman will have a hard time filling the places left vacant by "Russ" Thompson and Harry Yates, but with such men as Van Vleet, McLean, Mann, Stanley, Fuess, and Browne remaining from last year's letter men he should be able to develop a fast squad.

The goal guard position will be well looked after by Stanley and Fuess, who alternated at the position thruout the season last year. With a year's experience behind them they should make an even better showing than they did last season. The line will be well taken care of, for in addition to Captain Van Vleet there are McLean and Mann, both of whom won their letters last year.

To find any adequate defense is the hardest problem Coach Prettyman has to solve. Browne and I. Bald of last year's varsity squad and Hazzard and T. A. Bald, the regular defense on last year's freshman team, appear the most likely combinations and will probably be given a chance to show their wares as soon as ice is available.

Dr. Crothers to Address Faculty

The Rev. Samuel Crothers, Litt.D., will preach in the College Chapel on January 24. On the preceding night Mr. Crothers will give an address before the Faculty Club. Although his subject has not been definitely announced, it is expected he will talk on some literary topic.

Dr. Crothers is one of the best known essayists in the country. He is a consistent contributor to the Atlantic Monthly and many other similar magazines.

Mr. Crothers was born in Oswego, Ill., in 1875, and 17 years later he graduated from Princeton University. Later he received degrees from Union Theological Seminary and Harvard Divinity School. He was ordained into the Presbyterian ministry in 1877 and became the pastor of the church in Eureka, Nevada, and then in Gold Hill. Later he entered the Unitarian ministry. Among his best known works are: "The Understanding Heart"; "The Endless Life"; "By the Christmas Fire", and "Among Friends."

WALLY JOHNSON SAILS

Wallace B. Johnson, Field Secretary of the College, left last Thursday morning for New York where he sailed for Europe on the S. S. "Paris" of the French Line. He will land at Havre and go at once to Paris where he will study at the Sorbonne during most of the winter. "Wally" is particularly interested in French History and Literature. He has no particular plans about visiting other places on the Continent but will probably spend Christmas at St. Moritz, the famous Swiss winter resort. He will also visit George Perrine, '25, who is teaching English at Chartres. Mr. Johnson is traveling alone this year but expects to see numerous friends in Paris.

According to his present plans, "Wally" will come back to the Hill about the first of February, laden with Dunhill pipes and golf socks which he has promised to get for various members of the student body. He will return to America on the S. S. "Empress of France" of the Canadian Pacific Steamship Line.

PUBLICATIONS ROOM PLANNED BY PI DELT.

Will Send Delegate to Convention at Berkeley in Fall

The securing of a publications' room, the celebration of Founder's Day, and plans for sending a delegate to the national convention at Berkeley were discussed at a meeting of Pi Delta Epsilon held at the Theta Delta Chi House last Friday evening.

The meeting was called for 8 o'clock and the first important matter to be brought up was that of a publications' room. This is something that has long been needed at Hamilton, and until now, the various fraternity houses have been used. It was decided after conference with the authorities, including Dr. Ferry, that one of the downstairs rooms of the Y. M. C. A. would be used for a publications' room for Life, Gaboon, etc. This is possible, now that the Y is no longer used for display purposes by visiting salesmen.

A committee consisting of David Paine, '26, and George Bebee, '26, has been appointed to look into the matter of furnishing such a room. It is hoped that the college will contribute something in the way of furniture. A telephone will be installed in this room, and the door will be furnished with a padlock. All members of Pi Delta Epsilon will be given keys. The chapter hopes to have the room ready by Christmas vacation. It will undoubtedly be of material assistance to all the publications.

Another matter which engaged the attention of the chapter was that of the celebration of Founders Day on February 10. Oswald G. Villard will lecture here at this time on some general journalistic subject. The lecture will take place in the Chapel in the evening. Mr. Villard is the editor of the New York Nation, and was at one time editor and owner of the New York Evening Post. He is rather famous for his Liberal tendencies. Pi Delta Epsilon will give a dinner in his honor on the Hill, before the lecture.

The matter of sending a delegate to the National Convention to be held at Berkeley, Calif., next September, was also considered. The convention is to be one of the largest of its kind ever held, and the Governor of California is to address the delegates.

The chapter decided to send a delegate, who has not yet been selected. The Grand National Council of Pi Delta Epsilon pays the railroad fare of one man from each chapter. The individual chapters have to furnish the meals and Pullman accommodations for delegates. A letter from the Grand National Council, giving details, was read at the meeting.

The heads of the different publications reported what progress had been made. The circulation of the Gaboon has been increased by 100 subscriptions since its last issue. The outlook for all the publications is generally encouraging.

There was a meeting of the Newman Club at Sigma Phi Place on the evening of December 3. Father Dwyer was not present at the meeting. The secretary has sent in an order for pins.

HOBART QUINTET FACES HAMILTON FRIDAY EVENING

Basketball Season Will Be Opened With Contest Against Fast Geneva Team

HAMILTON LINE-UP UNCERTAIN

Injury to Stone Likely to Hurt Buff and Blue Chances

Hamilton will pry the lid off its 1925-26 basketball campaign in a game with Hobart here Friday evening. The contest will mark the third appearance of the Geneva combination on its first trip of the season, the first game being played with Syracuse on Wednesday evening, and the second game with Colgate on Thursday.

Coach McBride is still somewhat in doubt as to the combination he will start in Friday's contest. With the exception of Rowley and Stackhouse, who are ineligible, the Hamilton mentor is likely to start almost any member of the squad.

Prospects for a Hamilton victory in the opener have slumped considerably during the last few days with the announcement that "Chip" Stone, lanky forward, may be unable to take part in the Hobart game. Stone has been troubled with a bad foot and has been unable to practice for several days, but there is still a possibility of the injured member responding to treatment before Friday.

In the absence of Stone, McBride has been alternating Normile and Eldridge at the forward position. Both of these men are freshmen who have had considerable basketball experience in high school and either of them ought to be able to fit into the Hamilton machine. Just which of this pair will be given the call, in case Stone is unable to start, is still a matter of conjecture.

Marquardt has been playing the other forward position. Jacobsen has been performing at center with Worboys in reserve and there is still a possibility that Normile will be given a chance at the pivot position.

Payne and Howk, a fast, shifty pair of guards, have been holding down the defensive positions and appear to be fixtures on the quintet. Esch and Thomas have been working regularly on the second team and will probably see action on the varsity before the initial contest is over.

A carefully planned five man defense will be used on the Hamilton quintet this season. McBride is counting on a strong, driving attack, considerably strengthened by a fast offensive pair of guards, and a closely knit defense.

ORDER YOUR COPY OF THE 1927 HAMILTONIAN NOW!

Plans for the subscription drive for the 1927 Hamiltonian have been completed and orders for the year book will be taken on Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday of this week. The same plan used during the last few years of signing checks dated ahead will be followed again this year.

The Hamiltonian board has gone out of its way to make this year's annual the most complete record published in many years. Probably the most outstanding feature in the Hamiltonian will be the faculty section, with individual cuts made from recent photos of each member of the faculty. It has been four years since any Hamiltonian board has run individual faculty pictures and consequently this will be the only opportunity presented to the present generation of undergraduates to secure a permanent collection of faculty photos.

A feature section along decidedly unusual line has been worked out by Bob Fradenburgh and Carl Davis and will be one of the most attractive parts of the book. All of the usual undergraduate activities, athletic pictures, and fraternity lists will be included and the book will be bound in a handsome leather cover. This year's Hamiltonian will be dedicated to Wally Johnson.

An alumni subscription campaign is also being conducted to give alumni an opportunity to secure this beautiful and permanent record of the college.

—F.G. Yeandle, '19, was on the Hill recently. He is teaching at Columbia.

THERE AIN'T NO SANTA CLAUS—ALMOST

It is sometimes a cause of wonder to us that college students—Hamilton College students—are not more awake to the self-interest which greater concern with themselves would effect. Not that we are overly complacent, nor yet do we regret the days—reviewed in last week's Life—when a protest against the administration was registered with the discharge of a cannon in a college dormitory!

But consider, for example, the probable improvement that could well be arranged in the present dates of Christmas vacation were the students just a little bit more concerned. Absurdly enough, vacation here starts on Dec. 23rd, making it impossible for men who live at such a distance, say, as Chicago, to reach home earlier than Christmas Eve. For men who live in cities nearer by there is another, a social, inconvenience; upon returning home they find that they have missed much of the gaiety of the holiday season, the pleasures of which are being enjoyed by the Flaming Youth released from other colleges several days earlier. It is obviously to the interest of men in this college that vacation start earlier and, of course, close earlier also. The reasons for wishing the change are perfectly rational. We trust that a majority opinion of the college will have some influence on the authorities when they arrange the calendar for next year.

So far we have heard of only one argument advanced against the change in date of Christmas vacation, and it is hard to take that one seriously. It has been breathed that certain of the powers that be are averse to the thought of traveling—or having anyone else travel—on Sunday. Under ordinary conditions, such a quaint bit of blue nosed dogma would be faintly amusing; but under the circumstances it is slightly irritating.

The matter of the small conveniences refused to men in this college can of course be extended further. It has often been suggested that classes be eliminated on the Saturday mornings of house-party week, and that a day be added between the terms to make up for the lost time. But nothing that is discernible to this editorial eye has ever been done about it. A like unanimity of view has been expressed toward moving forward of the hour of morning chapel until mid-morning or noon, for there is no reason why men who have no morning classes, or late morning classes, should get up at 7:30, except for the old argument of the college alarm clock.

Three plans that must be buried, apparently, in a little graveyard of perfectly respectable desires!

HAMILTON IN LUCK

One of the most frequent objections raised against Hamilton College is that on account of its isolated situation there is very little chance to obtain those cultural influences that are more easily obtained in colleges located in large cities. The number of good plays, lectures, and musical presentations that come to Utica during the year are very limited. And even when interesting and worthwhile exhibitions are given in Utica, it is not always possible for the student to attend them.

The first important step made to bring cultural entertainment to the Hill was the establishment of the Myers Lectures. For a good many years now through this endowment the College has had the chance to listen to men of distinction in many fields, literary, scientific, and political.

This year marks the advent of an important addition to the college year, namely, the Arthur Whiting series of concert-recitals. Five of these recitals, similar to those which Mr. Whiting has presented for years at Yale, Harvard, and Princeton, will be given during the year in the Chapel. These concerts are made possible through the courtesy of the Carnegie Corporation. The recitals are presented with the hope of interesting college men in the appreciation of good music. This is a great opportunity for Hamilton.

But one thing must be remembered: The College is on trial this year. The students will be given the choice seats in the chapel free of charge before the sale of tickets is thrown open to the general public. If Hamiltonians attend these concerts in large numbers, and show their appreciation of the efforts that are being made in their behalf, it seems probable that the Whiting series will become a permanent fixture at Hamilton. And, also, there is every reason to believe that if the concerts are a success at Hamilton, much larger funds will be given to the College next year so that the scope of the concerts may be broadened.

A word to the wise: Take advantage of this rare opportunity that is being given to Hamilton College.

ESSAY AND ORATION SUBJECTS ANNOUNCED

The subjects for the essay and oration competitions for the year 1925-26 have recently been announced from the office of the president and are as follows:

Clark Prize Oration: Intolerance in the United States; The Exile of Doorn; Plymouth Rock and Ellis Island in American Life; A Juristic Solution of International Problems; American Imperialism; The Northward Migration of the American Negro; Government by Bloc; Nordic Supremacy; Modern Industrialism and Cultural Education; The French in Morocco; The Growth of Federal Power in the United States; Wall Street.

Pruyn Medal Oration: Education for Political Responsibility.

Head Prize Oration: Alexander Hamilton and World Democracy.

Kirkland Prize Oration: The Conflict of Hebrew Priest and Prophet.

Kellogg Essays—Juniors: Joseph Conrad's Contribution to English Literature; The Place of Philosophy in the Progress of man. Sophomores: The Intelligence Test as a Measure of Ability. Freshmen: The Conquest of the North Pole; Gerritt Smith.

Cobb Essay: The Consolidation of American Newspapers.

Hutton Essay: Dramatic Elements in the Gospel of John.

Soper Thesis: The Paper Standard in England, 1914-1925.

All papers in any competition must be left with the president at a date and hour to be announced later. They must be typewritten upon one side of sheets about 8 x 11 inches, with broad margins for binding. Pages must be properly numbered and fastened securely; they must not be rolled or folded. Each paper must be signed with a fictitious name, and accompanied by a sealed envelope similarly marked and containing the name of the author.

PUBLIC SPEAKING

A COMMUNICATION

To the Editor of Hamilton Life:

May I beg the privilege of routing from its accustomed berth some of the advertising on page 3 of Life? I want to use the space, and my inspiration is furnished by a recent editorial on the elimination of compulsory Public Speaking from Junior and Senior cur-

Not to have my doctrine sound too ricula.

Cal-vinistic, let me say at the beginning that I do not consider the attainment of a ready flow of language the be all and the end all of the purpose of a College education. Neither do I believe that a man with a ready gift of gab can necessarily go out into the world and rise on his vocabulary. Otherwise empty box-cars from Bangor to Berkeley are filled with gentlemen whose speeches approach brilliance; yet they ride the rails.

Of course, the burden of proof rests on the attackers of the present system. The consistent success of Hamilton alumni is proverbial, and who can say that their training in public speaking has not helped them? No alumnus, as far as I have been able to discover, has ever had anything but good to say for The Department. It may be that the mists of time have mellowed the rigors of the chapels that in their day must have been agonizing enough. But even at that, the verdict of the past is not to be taken lightly.

But look at the matter rationally. A certain number of credits are required for graduation. Is there any easier way to attach two hours to your score than twice a semester to talk for ten minutes, and once a week during the rest of the term, peacefully to doze away in the calm and soothing atmosphere of the Chapel?

And if it should so happen that you have had plenty of sleep the night before, think of all the predigested information you can get simply by listening. To be educated is—in part at least—to have a varied store of knowledge. And certainly, in a weekly forum where everything is discussed from the World Court to a Syracuse co-eds opinion of Hamilton men, you have the entire world of information and opinion clamoring at your ears.

Frankly, I don't think you know when you're well off. Here, on a silver salver, are handed you two hours' credit plus an astounding variety of current events, and you would chuck it—for what? To be ignorant of what's going on in the world, or to go thru the arduous process of reading up on it yourself? Or to make up the required hours in some other class, for which no doubt you would have to prepare a lesson for every recitation, and in which you would probably never have the chance to get in some much-needed sleep?

WM. GRANT LEWI, Jr.

—Doane Comstock, ex-'26, was back on the Hill last weekend. Doane was taken ill with severe tonsilitis the day college opened, and has been out ever since because of several operations. He intends to come back in the fall of 1926 to get his degree from Hamilton.

—W. Bennett Skane, '27, was elected captain of the Union football team for next season. He has played on the varsity team for two years as regular left halfback. He is also on the varsity basketball and track teams.

—Mr. and Mrs. Elihu Root were on the Hill last Tuesday, spending the day with their son, Edward Root. They motored from New York Monday afternoon and spent the night in Albany. From there they came to Clinton in the morning. Mr. Root's trip was purely for pleasure.

Do College Students Insure Their Lives?
The Answer Seems to be "Yes"

Do You Know

That in a test recently made with upper-class students of both sexes in fourteen representative colleges, 140 out of 351 said they carried life Insurance policies?

It is significant that 40% of undergraduates have insurance on their lives—a notable advance over what prevailed twenty, or even ten, years ago. This shows that college students and their parents think life insurance is of considerable use in connection with the educational program.

Parents believe in it because they have something invested for the benefit of their children. Students realize that their lives have an economic value.

The John Hancock is particularly interested in insuring college men and women and in obtaining college graduates for the personnel of the field staff.

It gives a better shave

Thousands of men know this reason for the ever-growing popularity of Williams Shaving Cream. Williams gives shaving lather—lather that stays wet and full. It is the result of three generations of specializing in shaving soaps. The big tube with the unlosable hinge-cap is 35c; double-size tube containing twice as much, 50c.

IS KIRKLAND COT RENDEZVOUS OF BOOTLEG GANG?

Crusade by Clinton Police Catches Hill Unawares

By Sir Burrhus, Life Corres. in the Balkans

Clinton, Dec. 7—Excitement reigned supreme on the Hill this afternoon when it became known that a special detachment of Clinton policemen, aided by several national enforcement officers, had brought charges against the College on a count of bootlegging. The Kirkland cottage was the center of interest since the accusation directed itself against that edifice as containing large amounts of bootleg whiskey.

The crusade was begun, authorities say, when Special Officer O'Hooley connected the recent repairs to the Cottage with the proposal to serve wine in Commons with the regular meal. "No one," stated O'Hooley, "could overlook the significance of these two facts when placed in intimate juxtaposition."

The fervor reached its height this afternoon at 10 o'clock when it was discovered that the cellar stairway in the Kirkland Cot had no cellar attached! "There is no cellar connected with the cellar stairway," stated O'Hooley, "The inference is obvious," he added.

The college, it is understood, has retained Dr. Stanley Griffin, eminent criminal lawyer, as counsel. In a signed statement this evening, Mr. Griffiths made no reply. Col. Griffis' reputation, however, as an expert in International Law, is indeed some consolation for the depressed College. Mr. Griffi is expected to sob as he speaks to the jury.

The rumor that three members of the faculty applied early this evening for sabbatical leave is unfounded. Nor is it true that attempts were made by certain other members to get character witnesses in case the suit comes before the court within the natural course of their lives.

Lament on Professorial Snaking in Clinton

Dear Carp:

You may be amused
—perhaps you will scoff—
To hear that my girl's
Been out with a prof.

She: "He ain't a bad egg..
I don't know where he's from....
You say he's a prof?
My Gawd, but he's dumb..!"
Listen, Carp, I claim it's tough
When the faculty fools with our Clinton stuff!

BIG BILL MARSH MAKES TIMELY TARGET FOR FLATULENT SNOW SPHERE

Big Baritone Gets in Way of Icy Pill which Appears from Midst of Student Group in Front of Chapel—Guilty Party Refuses to Surrender; or Was It the Wind?—Prof. Gave Group Hard Look and Then Walked Off, Say Witnesses—He Looks for Fingerprints on Snowball, but Sun Melts Surface Before Action Can Be Taken—"I'll Fight Anyone in the Crowd in Man-to-Man Fashion, with or without Brass Kunckles," Says Maddened Mentor, Branding Crowd with Cowardice—Leads Way to Gymnasium, but No One Follows—Students Said to Plan Banquet for Heroic Comrade Who Shot the Icy Onion.

An Open Letter to the Editor of Hamilton Life

Dear Mr. Editor:

I note with dismay the lamentable error which got into your sheet concerning the "death" of Bayard L. Peck. Of course the dirty work is done now but.....

Don't you think it would be a decent thing for you to help him collect his life insurance?

Yours and all that,

NEW SYSTEM ADOPTED IN LIFE COMPETITION

Junior Editors Will Work Under Direct Supervision

Announcement has been made of a new system of competition among the Junior reporters of Life to select the editor for next year. It has been felt both by the competitors themselves and by the editors of Life that the old arrangement of turning the paper completely over to each junior on the board for two issues in the year is distinctly unfair. The amount of news available for the different issues varies with the season of the year. Also, under the former system there was no direct supervision by the editors of the paper of the material that was published in Life.

The new competition has been formulated with an aim towards remedying these faults. As in the past, each junior competitor will have charge of two issues. He will first have to consult with the editor and with the managing editor in regard to the editorials and the giving out of assignments. On Sunday evening the copy will be given to the issue editor, who will then work out the page form, correct copy, and write heads. Either the editor or the managing editor will then examine the material and see that everything is satisfactory before the copy is sent to the printer. On Monday afternoon the issue editor will correct copy at the Courier Press in Clinton. Before the paper goes to press, it will be given a final o. k. by the editor or the managing editor.

The new competition will commence shortly after the Christmas vacation and will continue until spring. The plans for the competition have met with the approval of the local chapter of Pi Delta Epsilon, national journalistic society.

Old System Unsuccessful

In former years it has been necessary for the Editor of Life to turn over the paper to his assistants on account of the fact that he had had to have complete control of each issue during his editorship. This entailed such a great amount of work that it could not be continued throughout the year. Also, the junior competitors found it very difficult to have to put out the paper without any previous experience in such work. It was frequently necessary in former years for the juniors to have to sit up all Sunday night putting out Life. In an effort to remedy this situation this year, the editors of the paper have had two juniors help every Sunday night, so that these men may obtain sufficient knowledge of the workings of the paper to enable them to handle their respective issues more competently.

Another fact that has made it much easier to inaugurate the new competition this year is that the duties of the editor have been greatly lessened by the establishing of the position of managing editor. The managing editor takes care of most of the routine work connected with Life.

The greatest difficulty with the new arrangement is that the paper issued by a junior competitor may not really represent that man's work, as the editor or managing editor will change anything, as they see fit. To remedy this, an elaborate chart has been worked out, on which will be kept an exact record of the actual work done by the junior reporter. Also, consideration will be given the work done by the juniors in the two or three years they have been working for Life, previous to the beginning of the competition.

ALUMNI NOTE

Clarence L. Fisher, '00, of Lyons Falls, was recently re-elected member of Assembly from Lewis County by a large majority. Mr. Fisher is a Republican.

COLLEGE FAVORS THE WORLD COURT

The vote taken last Wednesday morning after chapel on the question "Shall the United States of America join the Permanent Court of International Justice?" resulted decisively in favor of the affirmative. The total number of votes cast was 346. 265 of these were in favor of the proposition and 81 against. On that same morning a similar vote was taken at Georgia Tech. The total results of this national undergraduate vote will appear in the "New Student" about Dec. 15.

These votes cast on Wednesday morning represent the opinion of 346 men who seriously thought about the question. The vote was not a compulsory one, as evidenced by the fact that some 60 men, who did not think the matter worthy of their attention, withheld their votes. Those who did cast a vote did so after due consideration of the proposition. Debates and discussions have been held on this question; the proposition has been outlined twice in Life; and the main issues of the question were brought to the attention of the undergraduates immediately before the vote was taken.

It is only fitting that such a national vote should be held in the colleges and universities of the United States. These undergraduates of today are just as interested in national and international problems as any other group in the country, and furthermore, it is this group of undergraduates who will control our nation's relation to the other nations of the world in the future.

—Recent published figures show that Duke University is the richest and youngest university in the country. The will of the late James B. Duke brings the total amount of endowments up to $70,000,000. This southern institution leads all others, Harvard coming second with an endowment of $64,413,891, Columbia, Yale, Chicago, Stanford, Johns Hopkins, M. I. T., Rochester, Princeton, and Pennsylvania follow in the order named.

—The largest faculty in any American college is the faculty of the University of Minnesota, which numbers 1,250 members.

MUSICAL CLUB PLANS

The concert will last for about one hour and forty-five minutes altogether, and will be followed by dancing. While no arrangements for a special trolley have been made this year, all of the Clinton taxis will be available in Utica after the party.

The Instrumental Club is the best heard on the Hill in recent years. The quartet, which will sing several original numbers, as well as Faculty Scurfs, and others, is composed of the following men: Browne, 2nd bass; Freeman, 1st bass; Nichols, 2nd tenor; Whitbeck, 2nd tenor.

N. Y. Mills Concert

The program is in general that of Wednesday night's concert at New York Mills, with the addition of all the novelty numbers. This, the first concert of the season, took place in the Walcott Memorial Church in New York Mills, on Wednesday, Dec. 2, at 8 o'clock. It was a very promising first appearance. Not only were the Glee and Instrumental Clubs' numbers very smoothly rendered, but they were well received. The piece de resistance of the evening was the unscheduled tenor solo of Wiggins, '27, during a rest in one of the vocal numbers.

The manager of the Clubs has under consideration a three-day trip to Rochester, Buffalo, and Niagara Falls, for a weekend in February. There is also a proposal for a trip to Norwich, Binghamton, and Scranton. The New York trip this spring will probably be the same as usual.
